- Sport can and does play a major role in promoting the inclusion of all groups in society. However, inequalities have traditionally existed in sport, particularly in relation to gender, race and disability.
- Sport England is committed to promoting and developing sports equality, which is about the fairness in sport, equality or access, recognising inequalities and taking steps to address them.
- By monitoring the profile of young people in sports clubs, national governing bodies of sport and Sport England can identify any issues relating to under-representation of different groups and can together develop strategies to ensure that all young people have the opportunity in the future to develop and progress in sport.
